EXPLANATION OF DIRECTORY LISTING

1. Numbers appearing before the school district name indicate the school district's official number, if any.
2. "R—" preceding the number indicates a reorganized school district.
3. "C—" preceding the number indicates a consolidated school district.
4. When no official name has been designated for a reorganized district, the mailing address is given in parentheses.
5. If the name of the school district and post office address are different, the post office address is shown in parentheses.
6. Next on the same line is the classification of the school district as of June 30, 1954:
   a. Districts maintaining high schools are classified as AAA, AA, A, or U.

Explanation of Directory Listing—Continued

Abbreviations—Continued

b. Districts maintaining only elementary schools are classified as EAAA, EAA, EA, or RA.

7. The number following the classification is the assessed valuation.
8. Total levy in cents on the one-hundred dollar assessed valuation is indicated next.
9. The telephone number is placed last on the line.
10. When there is more than one high school the telephone number of each high school is shown.
11. The number of elementary teachers and pupil enrollment appear next.
12. The number of high school teachers and pupil enrollment follow.
13. If integration in either the elementary or the high school exists as of the beginning of this school year, enrollment is shown without regard to race. Otherwise a "W" indicates white pupils; an "N" indicates negro pupils.
14. Names of the president and secretary of the board of education, the president's name appearing first, are reported on the next line.
15. The names of the superintendent, assistant superintendent, special supervisors, high school principal(s), high school teachers, and elementary school principal(s) follow, next in order.
16. After the names of high school teachers the subjects taught are indicated by the abbreviations given below.
17. The number following indicates year(s) in the school system, this year counting as one.
18. Directory copy went to the printers on September 23. Districts for which no directory information blank was received by September 19 are shown including only the first line of data, with the notation "Directory information not submitted."

Part time teachers have (#) before teacher's name

* An asterisk preceding the name of the school indicates member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

† A dagger preceding the name of the school indicates the district is organized as a six-director elementary school program (not operating a high school).

(This group of schools includes those employing an administrative officer devoting half or more time to non-teaching duties.)

†† A double dagger indicates a district operating under a three-director board of education not maintaining a high school but employing an administrative officer devoting half or more time to non-teaching duties.

EXPLANATION OF DIRECTORY LISTING

1. Numbers appearing before the school district name indicate the school district's official number, if any.
2. "R—" preceding the number indicates a reorganized school district.
3. "C—" preceding the number indicates a consolidated school district.
4. When no official name has been designated for a reorganized district, the maining address is given in parentheses.
5. If the name of the school district and post office address are different, the post office address is shown in parentheses.
6. Next on the same line is the classification of the school district as of June 30, 1957:
   a. Districts maintaining high schools are classified as AAA, AA, A, APP or U.
   b. Elementary districts employing a half-time or more administrator are classified by same standards as elementary schools in high school districts: AAA, AA, A, APP or U.
7. The number following the classification is the assessed valuation.
8. Total levy in cents on the one-hundred dollar assessed valuation is indicated next.
9. The telephone number is placed last on the line.
10. When there is more than one high school the telephone number of each high school is shown.

Directory Listing—Continued

11. The number of elementary teachers and pupil enrollment appear next.
12. The number of high school teachers and pupil enrollment follow.
13. Enrollment is shown without regard to race.
14. Names of the president and secretary of the board of education, the president's name appearing first, are reported on the next line.
15. The names of the superintendent, assistant superintendent, special supervisors, high school principal(s), high school teachers, and elementary school principal(s) follow, next in order.
16. After the names of high school teachers the subjects taught are indicated by the abbreviations given below.
17. The number following indicates year(s) in the school system, this year counting as one.
18. Director copy went to the printers on September 27. Districts for which no directory information blank was received by September 20 are shown including the first line of data, with the notation "Directory information not submitted."

EXPLANATION OF DIRECTORY LISTING

1. Numbers appearing before the school district name indicate the school district's official number, if any.
2. "R—" preceding the number indicates a reorganized school district.
3. "C—" preceding the number indicates a consolidated school district.
4. When no official name has been designated for a reorganized district, the mailing address is given in parentheses.
5. If the name of the school district and post office address are different, the post office address is shown in parentheses.
6. An asterisk preceding the name of the school indicates that it is a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.
7. Next on the same line is the classification of the school district as of June 30, 1954:
   a. Districts maintaining high schools are classified as AAA, AA, A, or U.
   b. Districts maintaining only elementary schools are classified as EAAA, EAA, EA, or RA.
8. The number following the classification is the assessed valuation.
9. Total levy in cents on the one-hundred dollar assessed valuation is indicated next.
10. The telephone number is placed last on the line.
11. When there is more than one high school the telephone number of each high school is shown.
12. The number of elementary teachers and pupil enrollment appear next.
13. The number of high school teachers and pupil enrollment follow.
14. Abbreviations used: Wh—White; N—Negro; Wh-N—Combined.
15. Names of the president and secretary of the board of education, the president's name appearing first, are reported on the next line.
16. The names of the superintendent, assistant superintendent, special supervisors, high school principal(s), high school teachers, and elementary school principal(s) follow, next in order.
17. After the names of high school teachers the subjects taught are indicated by the abbreviations given below.
18. The number following indicates year(s) in the school system, this year counting as one.
19. Directory copy went to the printers on September 27. Districts for which no directory information blank was received by September 20 are shown including only the first line of data, with the notation "Directory information not submitted."
20. To indicate subjects taught by each teacher, the following abbreviations are used:

Ag	Agriculture
Alg	Algebra
Art	Art
Bd	Band
Bk	Bookkeeping
Bi	Biology, Botany, Zoology
Chem	Chemistry

EXPLANATION OF DIRECTORY LISTING

1. Numbers appearing before the school district name indicate the school district's official number, if any.
2. "R—" preceding the number indicates a reorganized school district.
3. "C—" preceding the number indicates a consolidated school district.
4. When no official name has been designated for a reorganized district, the mailing address is given in parentheses.
5. If the name of the school district and post office address are different, the post office address is shown in parentheses.
6. Next on the same line is the classification of the school district as of June 30, 1958.

a. Districts maintaining high schools are classified as AAA, AA, A, APP or U.

b. Elementary districts employing a half-time or more administrator are classified by same standards as elementary schools in high school districts: AAA, AA, A, APP or U.

7. The number following the classification is the assessed valuation.
8. Total levy in cents on the one-hundred dollar assessed valuation is indicated next.
9. The telephone number is placed last on the line.
10. When there is more than one high school the telephone number of each school is shown.
11. The number of elementary teachers and pupil enrollment appear next.
12. The number of high school teachers and pupil enrollment follow.
13. Enrollment is shown without regard to race.
14. Names of the president and secretary of the board of education, the president's name appearing first, are reported on the next line.
15. The names of the superintendents, assistant superintendent, special supervisors, high school principal(s), high school teachers, and elementary school principal(s) follow, next in order.
16. After the names of high school teachers the subjects taught are indicated by the abbreviations given below.
17. The number following indicates year(s) in the school system, this year counting as one.
18. Director copy went to the printers on September 26. Districts for which no directory information blank was received by September 18 are shown including the first line of data, with the notation "Directory information not submitted."
19. To indicate subjects taught by each teacher, the following abbreviations are used:

EXPLANATION OF DIRECTORY LISTING

1. Numbers appearing before the school district name indicate the school district's official number, if any.
2. "R—" preceding the number indicates a reorganized school district.
3. "C—" preceding the number indicates a consolidated school district.
4. When no official name has been designated for a reorganized district, the mailing address is given in parentheses.
5. If the name of the school district and post office address are different, the post office address is shown in parentheses.
6. Next on the same line is the classification of the school district as of June 30, 1959:
   a. Districts maintaining high schools are classified as AAA, AA, A, APP or U.
   b. Elementary districts employing a half-time or more administrator are classified by same standards as elementary schools in high school districts: AAA, AA, A, APP or U.
7. The number following the classification is the assessed valuation.
8. Total levy in cents on the one-hundred dollar assessed valuation is indicated next.
9. The telephone number is placed last on the line.

Directory Listing—Continued

10. When there is more than one high school the telephone number of each high school is shown.
11. The number of elementary teachers and pupil enrollment appear next.
12. The number of high school teachers and pupil enrollment follow.
13. Enrollment is shown without regard to race.
14. Names of the president and secretary of the board of education, the president's name appearing first, are reported on the next line.
15. The names of the superintendent, assistant superintendent, special supervisors, high school principal(s), high school teachers, and elementary school principal(s) follow, next in order.
16. After the names of high school teachers the subjects taught are indicated by the abbreviations given below.
17. The number following indicates year(s) in the school system, this year counting as one.
18. Director copy went to the printers on September 25. Districts for which no directory information blank was received by September 18 are shown including the first line of data, with the notation "Directory information not submitted."
19. To indicate subjects taught by each teacher, the following abbreviations are used:
